

Animal rights

Many animals are being hunted to the brink of extinction in order to fulfil the demand and greed of mankind for decorative purposes as well as for other reasons, such as traditional medicine. How can this issue be tackled?

Type: (problem - solution)

Over recent decades, a trunk of selfish individuals individuals have been hunting killing animals for several irrational reasons to some extent to become extinct. There are a variety of measures to be taken to address this problem which are given on the below.

Firstly, The first solution is increasing the public awareness about the consequences of having mistreat with animals must be urgently considered. It is obvious that humans have done some wrong behaviors which caused has caused irreparable damage to animals animals' life. Since human life is depend dependent on the existence of animals in the life cycle, some drastic steps should be taken to improve this critical situation. The first solution is increasing the public awareness about the consequences of having mistreat with animals.-(first brain storm) Setting up environmental campaigns, providing informative TV programmes, as well as adding some lessons lessons in schools curriculum which teach students about the natural habitats of flora and fauna for instance, are helpful to reduce the amount of animal cruelty.

Moreover, Secondly, some other tough measures could be taken by government officials. First and foremost, killing animals must be banned. Under no circumstances should anyone be allowed to hunting hunt or use using animals for unethical purposes such as producing cosmetics products, or conventional medicine and preparing decorative pieces as well. Furthermore, imposing severe penalties on citizens who do not obey the animal rights rules is necessary. For example, the authorities of my country have been succeeded successful in to saving save the Iranian yellow deers deer from extinction by tripling the fine for poaching and increasing environmental monitoring.

In conclusion, the problem of animal extinction will only be improved if the social awareness raise, in-addition the state exert strict laws and penalties to save life of animals.

In conclusion, with consideration of the available conservative solutions, it seems there would be less savagery regarding animals in the not too distant future.

Savagery = cruelty = violence

Successful = fruitful = profitable

Government officials = authorities
